Credit: George Hurrell. In the 1950s, Hollywood was no longer relying on stylized portraits any more and Hurrellâ€™s work was no longer sought after. He moved to New York City and began shooting more for fashion and advertising.

GEORGE HURRELL: The Ultimate Hollywood Portrait

Hurrell changed the soft-focus, posed portrait, at least within Hollywood. Partly because of new film and lenses that made it possible to create very sharp images, partly due to his new lighting technique, and partly due to the retouching techniques he adapted for both.
